Reading Acuity

Reading is a fundamental part of the educational process at this school within the diploma, certificate, and degree programs. Reading is required for all courses in these programs. Please answer (approximately) the following questions concerning your reading habits.

How often do you read the Bible?

How many of each item have you read over the past 6 months?

Books	Articles
Magazines/ Newspapers

Computer Literacy

Computer usage is an intricate and unavoidable part of the education process at this school within the diploma, certificate, and degree programs. Your ability to access and function on some level with a computer will be required in order to complete work assignments, access grades, and receive announcements and information. All students admitted to a “for credit” program are required to have an email address on file where they can receive information. There are options and opportunities available to assist you in this area—such as the availability of the computer lab, computer classes and tutorials, typist for hire (for papers). Failure to address any issues concerning computer accessibility, illiteracy, or capabilities will not sway the requirements of course work.

Check if you have read and understand this computer literacy policy.

I certify that I have given full and complete information on this application to Southern Bible Institute & College and that I have only listed schools and/or colleges that I have attended. Furthermore, I acknowledge that I am requesting consideration for admission to a Christian college committed to the Lordship of Jesus Christ, and that if admitted, I pledge to conduct myself in accordance with the standards outlined in the school catalog and student handbook.
